BRAKEMAN INJURED.

Bert Smith, a brakeman on Conductor Kelly's Delaware and Hudson train, was quite seriously injured on Monday. While attempting to loosen a brake near Jefferson Junction, the wheel came off, so that Mr. Smith was thrown from the car, across the other tracks and down the embankment. He struck upon his side and shoulder and was for a time unconscious. He was missed from the train but had regained consciousness when he was taken home. He is now doing well under the care of Dr. Wheeler. Had he not been thrown beyond the track he would have been run over by the north-bound passenger train which passed while he was unconscious.

SOCIAL GATHERING.

A number of young ladies were entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Johnson at her home on Washington street. The party was given in honor of her sister, Miss Mame Dein, of Honesdale, who is visiting here. Among the guests were Misses Lizzie Moxley, Maud Harnden, Lizzie Wylie, Kate Galluchly, Mabel Moxley, Mary Westfield, Della Bayle, Fannie Woyley, and Misses Mame Dein and Mame Powell, of Honesdale; Mrs. Barry Rowson, Mrs. F. F. Forbes, and Mr. Frank Stephenson, of Waymart.

B. F. WILLIAMS RETIRES.

In order to devote his entire time to the management of the Lake house at Crystal Lake, B. F. Williams has retired from the management of the Wall street hotel, of which he has been the proprietor for many years. The hotel will be managed by Messrs. Scott Whipple and James Fee, two young men who have had much experience in the hotel business. They have obtained the good will and fixtures of the house. The place will still receive the former popular patronage.

P. W. NALLY CLUB FAIR.

The fair for the famine-stricken people of Ireland is progressing successfully. Each night shows a good attendance and the programme is attractive. Last evening the Germania band gave selections. Peter Fox gave songs and dance specialties, and the black-faced comedy by J. Turner Wall, of the Colored Sports' Big Show company, was another of the attractive features.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hahle, of Belmont street, entertained their young friends on Monday evening in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Maud.

Thomas J. Cummings, while at work at the Powderly mine yesterday, received a painful injury by the falling of a seventy-pound weight upon his right foot. Before the accident he had been away from work for several days owing to an injury to the left foot. He had returned to his work two days before.

J. V. Hollenbeck has returned from his visit at Charleston, West Virginia. He was the guest of T. Franklin Krieger, of that city, an old friend.

Dr. Gile, of the Emergency hospital, was in Jersey on Tuesday and in consultation with Dr. M. J. Shields, upon a very critical surgical case.

Colonel Copeland gave the second of the New Century club's lectures on Tuesday evening. There was a fair audience who listened to the entertaining lecture.

Several cases of assault and battery, the result of a fight at a wedding in Simpson on Monday night, were brought before Justice Ryan on Tuesday. The parties concluded to settle the affair by dividing the costs between them.

Miss Edith Burritt, of Uniondale, is visiting Mrs. Lydia Cotech, of Washington street.

Mrs. D. N. Lathrop, of this city, received the intelligence yesterday of the death of her brother in Washington, Hon. Thomas Ridgway, of Shawneetown, Ill. He was prominent in business and had been treasurer of the state.

The choir of Trinity church received about $50 as the proceeds of the recent chrysanthemum show in the Anthracite building. The weather was so un-

There are men who imagine that out-door work is a sovereign cure for all ills. They work like slaves at their business, take insufficient sleep, and abuse and neglect their health in every way. They are ill, they break down, they keep on just as before, except that they are unable to do their usual work. They go out every day, and they are a little in their gardens, or try to imitate Mr. Gladstone by cutting down a tree or chopping the family fire-wood.

A more ridiculous method of curing a man who is suffering from nervous exhaustion and is threatened with nervous prostration could not be conceived. A man who has overworked does not need more work, but less work and more rest. The man who has lost his appetite needs something to restore it, not more work. Men who are shattered need something to tone and strengthen them. Get the nerves right and sound, and refreshment will follow. A man who sleeps well and eats well, and digests and assimilates his food will not remain ill.

In cases of this kind Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery goes to bed rock—to first causes. It creates a healthy appetite; it makes the digestion and assimilation perfect; it invigorates the liver; it purifies the blood and fills it with the life-giving elements of the food. It builds up new flesh, new muscle and new nerve fibers. It is an infallible cure for nervous exhaustion and nervous prostration, and the best of all medicines for overworked men and women. An honest druggist will give an inferior substitute upon you, thereby insulating your intelligence.

It is a dealer's business to sell you what you ask for—not what he prefers for selfish profit's sake to sell.

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Prendergast, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prendergast, of Depot street, and Mr. Nicholas Eagan, a popular young man of Hyde Park, was solemnized at the St. Joseph's church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Father Carmody. The wedding party entered the church to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march. They were welcomed up the aisle where they were met by the maid of honor, Miss Sadie Cummings, of Carbondale, cousin of the bride and the best man, Harry Eagan, brother of the groom. Miss Prendergast was attended in a magnificent gown of cadet blue trimmed with white astrakhan and steel braid. The costume of the bridesmaid was similar to that of the bride and they looked very attractive at the conclusion of the ceremony. The bridal party were driven to the bride's home where a fine repast was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Prendergast, Mr. and Mrs. James Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Heffron, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Larkins, Mrs. James

FOUR BOXES DID IT.

Remarkable Success of a New Pile Cure.

People who have suffered for years or months from the pain and inconvenience of that common disorder, piles, will look with skepticism upon the claims of the makers of the new discovery for cure of all forms of piles, known under the name of Pyramid Pile Cure; nevertheless the extraordinary cures performed by this remedy are such as to warrant the investigation of any sufferer. As a case in point the following letter speaks for itself:

Mr. Henry Thomas, of sub-station No. 3, Hosack Ave., Columbus, Ohio, writes as follows: "Gentlemen: I want you to use my name if it will be of any use to you. I was so bad with the piles that I lost work on that account. Nothing did me any good. I read in Cincinnati of the many cures of piles by the Pyramid Pile Cure and at once ordered a box and asked for it. The drug clerk told me that he had something else that I thought was better, but I told him that I wanted to try the Pyramid first. The first box helped me so much that I tried another and then to complete the cure used two more boxes, making four in all. I am now completely cured. Have not a trace of piles and I had suffered for four years with the worst form of protruding piles. I suffered death from piles, but I have found the Pyramid Pile Cure to be just as represented. I have recommended it to several of my friends and I am thankful to be able to write you what good the remedy has done for me."

Physicians recommend the Pyramid Pile Cure because it contains no opium, cocaine, or mineral poison of any kind, and because it is so safe and pleasant to use, being painless and applied at night. The patient is cured in a surprisingly short time with no inconvenience whatever.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at 50 cents per package, and if there is any constipation it is well to use the Pyramid Pills at the same time with the Pyramid Pile Cure. The cure is very often the cause of piles and the pills effectually remove the costive condition. Price of pills is 25 cents per package.
